

Code Enforcement Division's Top 10

City of Rancho Cordova Neighborhood Services City Codes

Like any city, Rancho Cordova has adopted a number of ordinances in order to maintain a healthy, safe and pleasant environment in which to live, work and play. Some ordinances were enacted in response to health and safety needs, while others help improve the appearance of your community. If you would like more information about these ordinances or about filing a complaint, please contact the Code Enforcement Division at (916) 851-8770. Typical code violations are, but not limited to:

Auto Repair

Only quick, minor repair work should occur in your garage or on your home's premises.

Junk and Rubbish

Keep all storage of personal items or garbage out of the front yard/public view.

Overgrown Front Yard Lawns and Shrubbery

Weeds must be kept under control. Landscape cannot overhang or impede any public right of way and must be trimmed back away from sidewalks, alleys or streets.

Rental Property Business Licenses

All rental properties located within the City are required to be registered (R.C.M.C. 16.20.1215) and maintain active business licenses with the City. The form can be found on our website at www.cityofranhocordova.org

or by emailing:

businesslicense@cityofranhocordova.org

Vehicle Parking

Vehicles (including RV's, boats and trailers) that are parked in the front area of the property must be parked on a paved surface. Parking on unpaved surfaces is not permitted.

Inadequate Property Maintenance

Items found outside of a residence that are not permanently installed or intended for outdoor use should be stored in a garage, both for aesthetics and safety.

Inoperable and Unregistered Vehicles

Keep all project, hobby or inoperable vehicles stored in a garage or remove them from the property.

Missing Addresses on Structure

New and existing buildings shall have approved address numbers that are legible, contrast with building color and visible from the street.
